

- I. The Mandate Given Holy Conduct and Godliness (v.11)
- Holy Conduct External actions and behavior
- Godliness Internal heart attitudes and reverence

- I. The Mandate Given Holy Conduct and Godliness (v.11)
  - A. Holy Living Comes From Having
    An Eternal Perspective (vv. 12-13)
- The word "new" means new in quality. The new heavens and new earth will be unlike anything previously known.

- I. The Mandate Given Holy Conduct and Godliness (v.11)
  - A. Holy Living Comes From Having
    An Eternal Perspective (vv. 12-13)
  - B. Having An Eternal Perspective Produces an Eagerness For Holy Living (v. 14)
  - C. Having an Eternal Perspective Produces Concern for the Lost (v. 15a)
  - D. Having an Eternal Perspective Will Produce A Concern For Doctrinal Integrity (v. 15b-17)

We are to grow in grace through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Because of His grace, God forgives the sins of His Children. They in turn feed on Scripture and commune with Christ, thereby increasing in their knowledge of Him.

John MacArthur

II. Our Final Exhortation

When we focus on Christ's eternal glory and our participation with that glory, then our hope will be characterized by holy conduct and godliness.

