Isaiah 2

Dwight Custis

Theme Statement: Since the fall, man has increasingly sinfully exalted himself. The command of the LORD God is to stop regarding man and to walk in the way of the LORD God. In the end, the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty will prevail and the LORD God alone will be exalted.

Key Verse: Isaiah 2:5 - Come, house of Jacob, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

Implications for us

1. We can and should take comfort in the fact that one day the Lord Jesus Christ will come to rule on this earth and will set everything right - 1 Thessalonians 4:18

“Therefore comfort one another with these words.” (in view of the rapture)
2. Having the hope of the imminent return and reign on earth of Jesus Christ, it ought to cause us to walk in the way of the Lord - 1 John 3:3

“And everyone who has this hope fixed on Him purifies himself just as He is pure.”
3. Just as certain as is the return of the Lord Jesus Christ is the certainty of coming terror of the LORD against sinners - Nahum 1:3

“The Lord is slow to anger and great in power,
And the Lord will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.
In whirlwind and storm is His way,
And clouds are the dust beneath His feet.”
4. We need to stop exalting man and be exalting the LORD of Hosts - Isaiah 2:22

“Stop regarding man, whose breath of life is in his nostrils; for why should he be esteemed?”
