Lessons from Rom. 11:17-24

1. Don't allow a sentimental view of God to cloud your spiritual perspective (22).
2. Be warned that only those who manifest the fruit of righteous lives belong to the true people of God (Jn. 15:1-2, 5, 8).
3. Persevere in your faith (Phil. 2:12).
4. Don't be arrogant toward the Jews — they still occupy the central place in God's redemptive plan and we [gentiles] have been graciously added (17-18).
5. Don't give up on those in your life who don't believe — God is able to give them faith and graft them in (23-24).
