1 Corinthians 2:1-16

The Apostle Paul embraced the foolishness of the message he proclaimed AND the method by which he proclaimed it.

Four commitments that undergirded Paul's preaching:

1. Paul resisted the persuasive techniques the Corinthians esteemed (2:1-5).
2. Paul trusted God's perspective on his message and method (2:6-9).
3. Paul recognized the spiritual nature of God's revelation (2:10-13).
4. Paul expected a mixed response to God's truth (2:14-16).
