

Countryside Bible Church - Sermon Application
A Life of Worship in Uncertain Times: Habakkuk Part 2
Jonathan Anderson — Nov. 1, 2020

Main Idea: Habakkuk, a prophet of Judah, urges his readers to trust in the Lord no matter the various situations and circumstances this life brings.

Outline:

- I. It is Coupled with a Life of Faith
- II. It is Cultivated by Prayer (vv. 1–2)
- III. It is Constructed on a Clear Vision of God (vv. 3–15)
 - a. A Vision of God’s Unchanging Character
 - b. A Vision of God’s Past Works
 - c. A Vision of God’s Future Triumph
- IV. It is Disconnected from our Circumstances (vv. 16–17)
- V. It is Centered on the God of our Salvation (vv. 18–19)

Reflection/Application:

- I. Discuss your commitment level to Sunday morning corporate worship (and other Sunday morning ministries) at CBC.
 - a. Are there any changes you know you need to make to up your level of commitment?
- II. Outside of corporate worship, are you intentionally seeking to worship God on a daily basis? How so?
- III. Describe/discuss your prayer life. Would you want other believers to emulate your prayer life? Why or why not?
- IV. Share personal circumstances/situations where you’ve failed to worship God like you should have. Looking back, how would you handle things differently in the future?
