

The background image is a photograph of a natural landscape. In the foreground, there is a dense field of tall, dry, golden-brown grass or weeds. Some of the plants have small, round, brown seed heads. To the right, a large, light-colored rock is partially visible. In the middle ground, there is a body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, with a small, grassy island or peninsula in the distance. The sky is a pale, overcast blue.

Three Realities of Kingdom Growth:

I. The Kingdom Grows by Hearing the Word (1–25)

- A. A Picture of Hearing the Word (3-8)
- B. An Exhortation to Hear the Word (9–12)
- C. Four Responses to Hearing the Word (13–20)
- D. The Necessity of Hearing the Word (21–23)
- E. The Importance of Hearing the Word (24–25)

II. The Kingdom Grows by the Power of God (26–29)

III. The Kingdom Grows to an Extraordinary Extent (30–34)

The image shows a field of tall, dry, golden-brown wildflowers in the foreground. In the background, there is a body of water and a rocky shore with some green vegetation. The text "Soils, Seeds, & Sowing" is overlaid in white, bold font in the upper right quadrant, and "Mark 4:1-34" is overlaid in a smaller white font directly below it.
