

Love Does Not Rejoice In Unrighteousness

1 Corinthians 13:6

“(Love) does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth.”

- I. What does it mean that love “does not rejoice in unrighteousness”?

- II. Why are we tempted to rejoice in unrighteousness?
 - a. _____

 - b. _____

 - c. _____ from others.

- III. Why should we not rejoice in unrighteousness?
 - a. Destructive consequences of _____

 - b. Hinderance of our _____

 - c. Lost opportunity to _____

IV. What does it mean that love “rejoices with the truth”?

a. It is more than a _____

b. It is an _____

V. How do we grow in our love for truth?

a. Start with the _____

b. View others _____

c. Pray for the _____

d. _____ on God’s Word

Questions for Reflection

1. Why is it sometimes difficult to stand for the truth?
2. What are ways to avoid appearing self-righteous when not rejoicing in unrighteousness?
3. What are some things you can do to cultivate a love for truth in your own heart? In your home?

Upcoming Schedule

March 20 - Love bears all things – Desserts: Mason

April 10 - Love believes/hopes all things – Desserts: Anderson

April 24 – Love endures/never fails - Desserts: Scarborough