

One28 Spring Conference 2024

I Boaz Take You Ruth: Biblical Principles for Dating & Marriage

Session 2 – Biblical Marriage and the Man.

Theme:

"A godly husband is one who keeps Christ at the center of everything he does and is marked as a lover, learner and a leader of his wife."

I. A Godly Husband is a _____ (Eph. 5:25-33)

1. The _____ to Love (25a, 28a and 33)
2. The _____ to Love (25, 29 and 32)
3. The Obvious Assumption i.e. _____ (28-29)

II. A Godly Husband is a _____ (1 Pet. 3:7)

1. To _____ is our goal (1 Pet. 3:7a)
2. _____ is our example (Matt. 11:28-30, 24:32; Luke 2:46,53)
3. _____ is our authority (2 Tim. 2:15; 1 Cor. 2:12; Jam. 1:5; Ps. 119:66)

III. A Godly Husband is a _____ (Eph. 5:22-24; Matt. 20:25-28)

"I believe we can safely (scripturally) say that we should oversee any area of our wife's life that affects her well-being (spiritual and otherwise), the lives of other family members, the management of the home, and the family's witness of God before a watching world. An observant overseer will see areas where the Lord might already be working in his wife's life and look for ways to be of assistance in that area."

- The Exemplary Husband by Stuart Scott

1. Her _____
2. Her _____

3. Her _____

4. Her _____

5. Her _____

Responsibilities as a Leader at Home

- Establish the _____ as the standard for your home.
- Establish how you will _____ for your family (Spiritually, materially etc.).
- Establish Operational _____ for your own family.
- Establish _____ Goals and Guidelines for your family.

Application

1. Self-reflection:

2. Ask yourself:

- a. Upward – Have I committed this matter in prayer to the Lord?
- b. Inward – Do I want to marry this woman?
- c. Outward – Have I sought wise counsel from godly men in my life?