In one sense, this is my hope for you: that you and your spouse would experience a renaissance in your sex lives, that you would be filled with a renewed sense of joy and anticipation.

*But I pray that you now understand sex more biblically—not just so that you might have a healthier marriage (although I do hope for that), but ultimately that you might know God in Christ more fully.
That you might love him more deeply. That you might anticipate eternity with him more eagerly.
Because that is what sex was designed to point us to all along: Christ and his return.*
