

I Am the Proof!

Paul's Testimony of the Gospel

Sojourners Fellowship

The background image is a soft-focus photograph of a hand holding a quill pen, writing on a parchment scroll. To the left, a lit candle provides a warm glow, and an inkwell is visible in the background. The text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

Thesis: The true gospel is the gospel of Jesus Christ. (11–12)

A. Not According to Man (11)

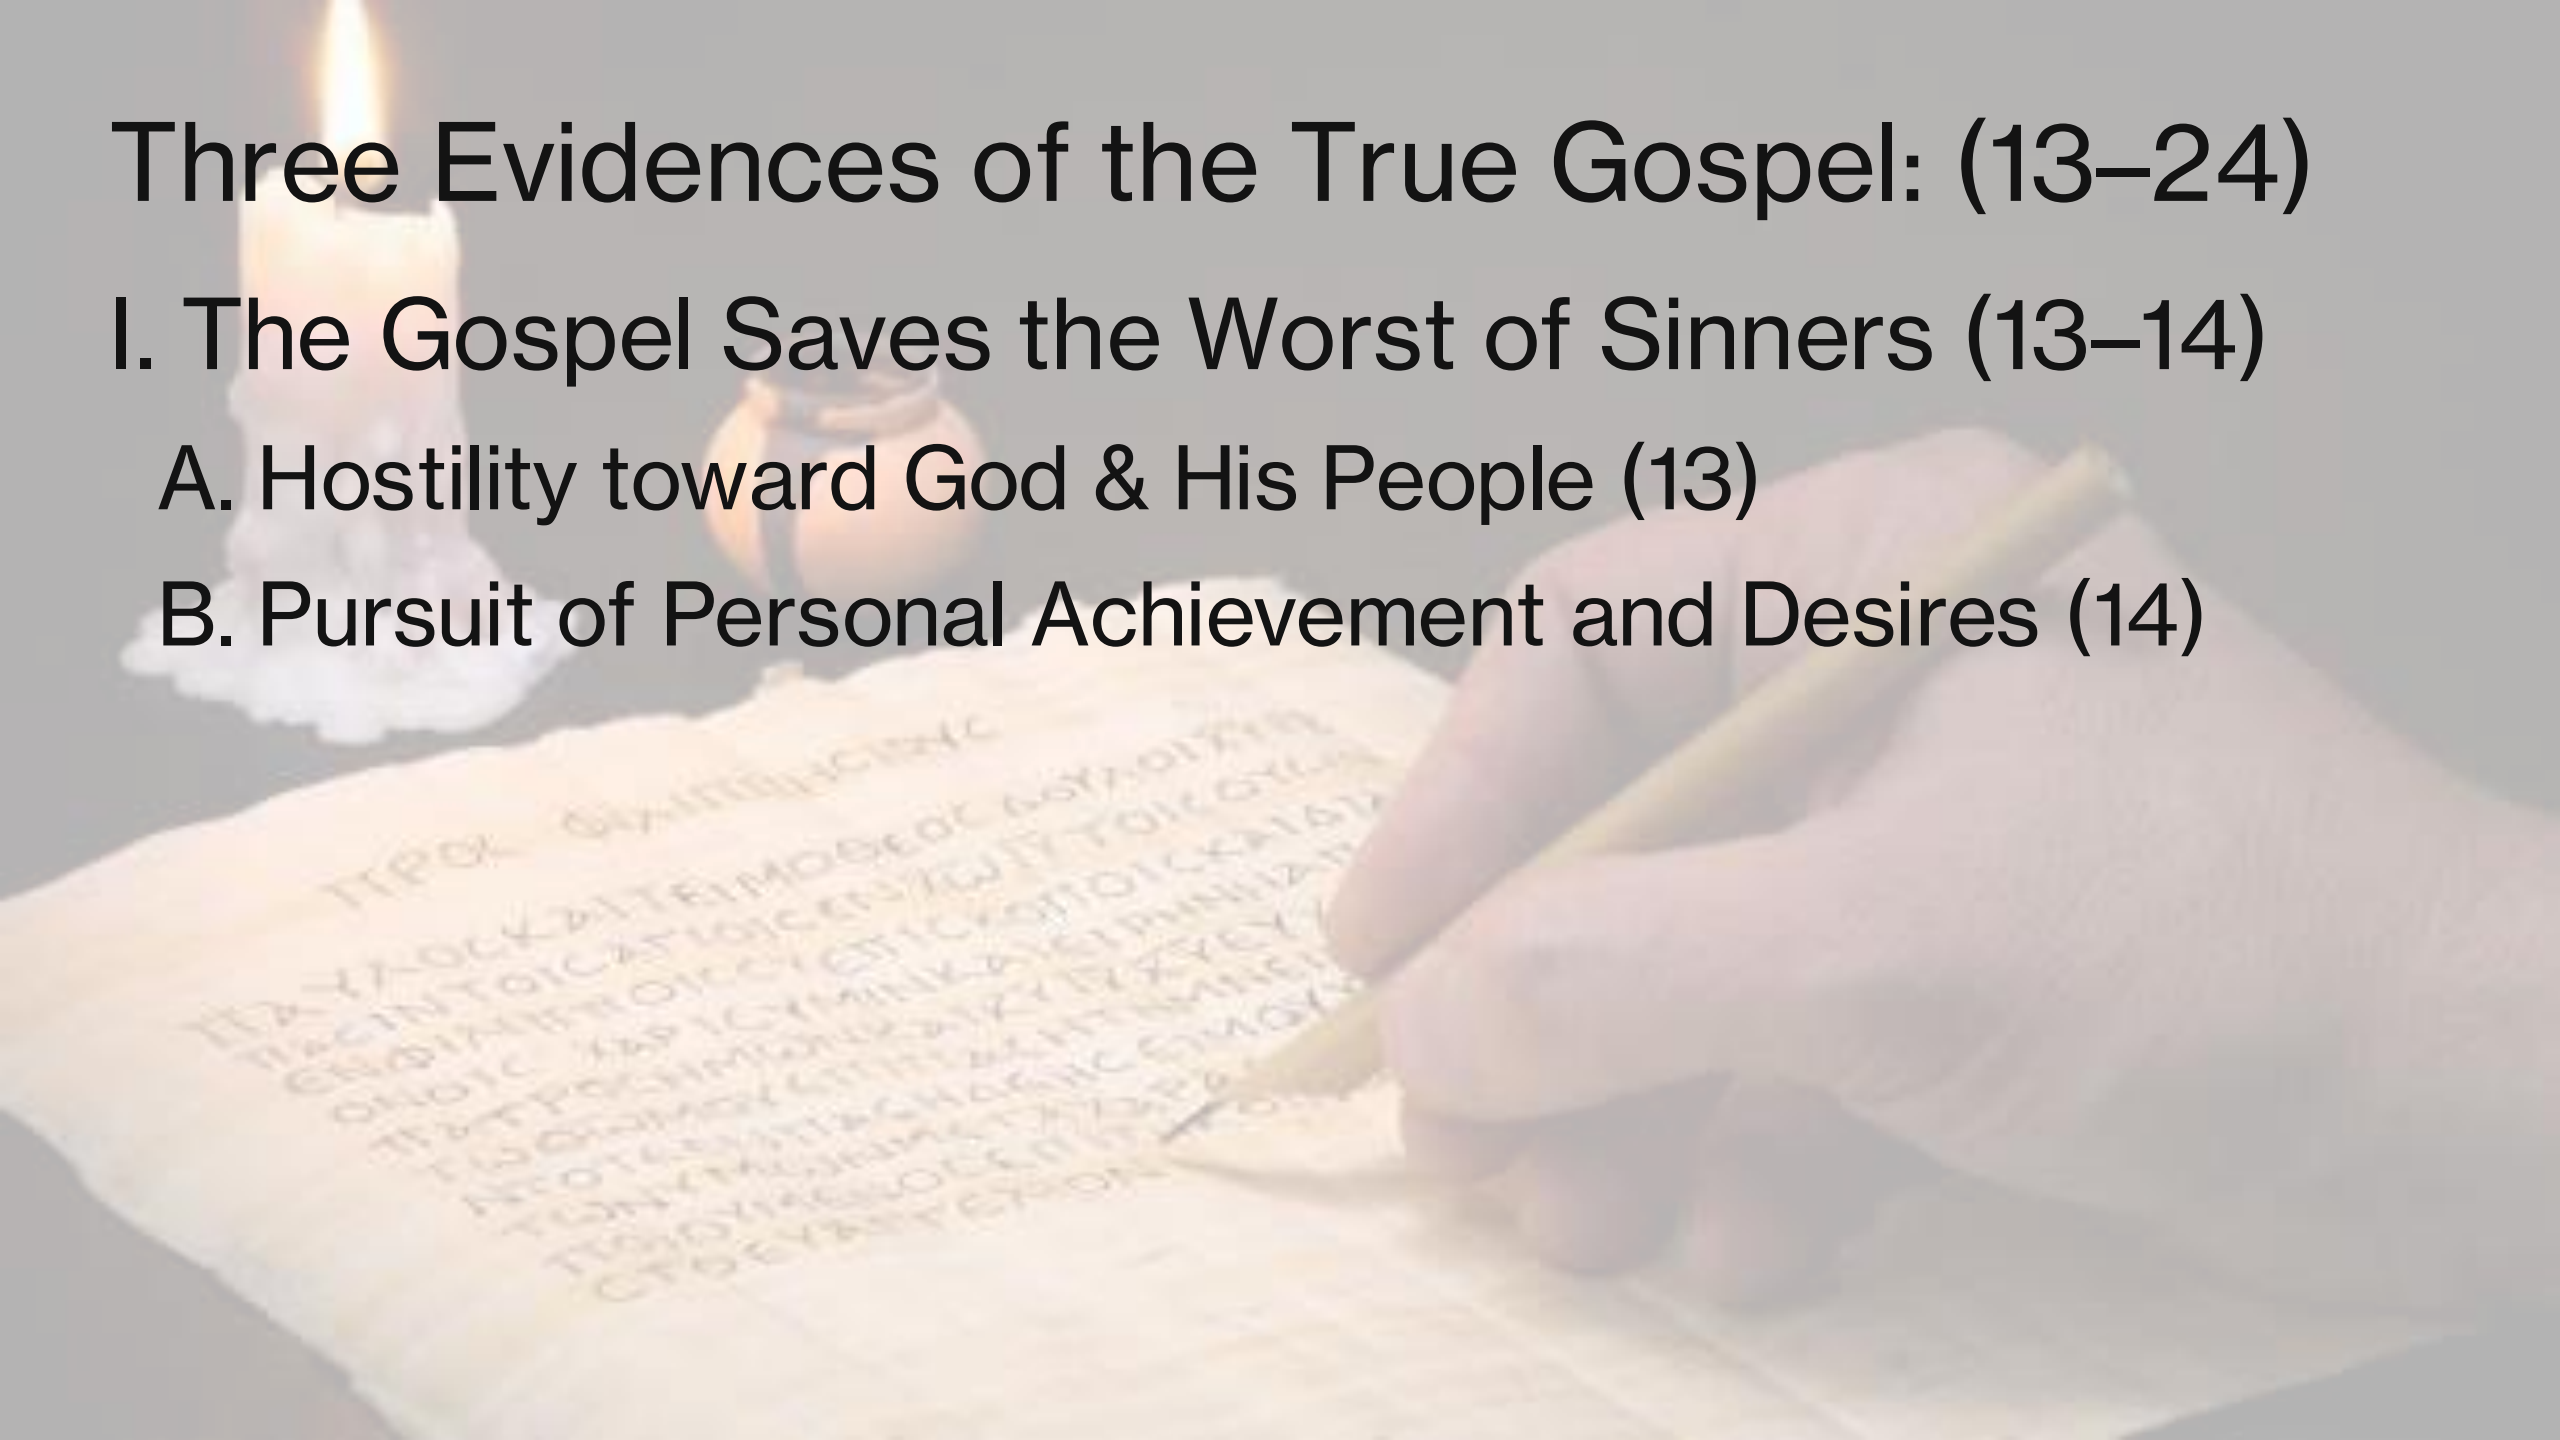

B. Received from Christ (12)

Three Evidences of the True Gospel: (13–24)

I. The Gospel Saves the Worst of Sinners (13–14)

A. Hostility toward God & His People (13)

B. Pursuit of Personal Achievement and Desires (14)

A background image featuring a lit candle on the left, an inkwell in the center, and a hand holding a quill pen writing on a scroll on the right. The scroll has some faint, illegible text on it.

Three Evidences of the True Gospel: (13–24)

I. The Gospel Saves the Worst of Sinners (13–14)

II. The Gospel Displays God's Sovereign Grace (15–17)

A. God's Work (15–16a)

1. Election

2. Calling

3. Conversion

B. Not Man's Work (16b–17)

The background image is a soft-focus photograph. On the left, a lit candle in a glass holder casts a warm glow. In the center, a small, dark jar sits on a surface. In the foreground, an open book with yellowed, handwritten pages is visible. A hand with a pink sleeve is pointing to a specific line of text in the right-hand page of the book.

Three Evidences of the True Gospel: (13–24)

I. The Gospel Saves the Worst of Sinners (13–14)

II. The Gospel Displays God's Sovereign Grace (15–17)

III. The Gospel Results in a Transformed Life (18–24)

A. Fellowship with Believers (18–20)

B. Concern for the Lost (21)

C. Encouragement of the Church (22–24)