TWO TYPES OF LAWS...

1. Apodictic Law - is absolute and clearly states a command or prohibition. These are the “thou shall/ thou shall not” of the law.
2. Casuistic Law - is the case-based law. It takes into consideration certain circumstances. Usually these are laws that have “If a man...then”

TWO QUESTIONS...

1. Do you strive to live according to God's commands for His glory?
2. How are you growing in compassion and grace towards God's image bearers?
