- ❖ Its design was a symbol of the separation between God and man, and yet every piece of furniture in it offered instructions on how to be reconciled to God.
- ❖ It was a replica of a heavenly reality (Heb 8:5; 9:23; 10:1). Therefore, it was insufficient to achieve its ultimate purpose.

- ❖ Christ accomplished the purpose of the Tabernacle – He makes relationship between a holy God and sinful man possible.
- ❖ Christ is the fulfillment of the Tabernacle itself (Matt. 1:23; John 1:1, 14)
