

Letters of Paul

The Christian's Walk (Ephesians 4:17–5:2)

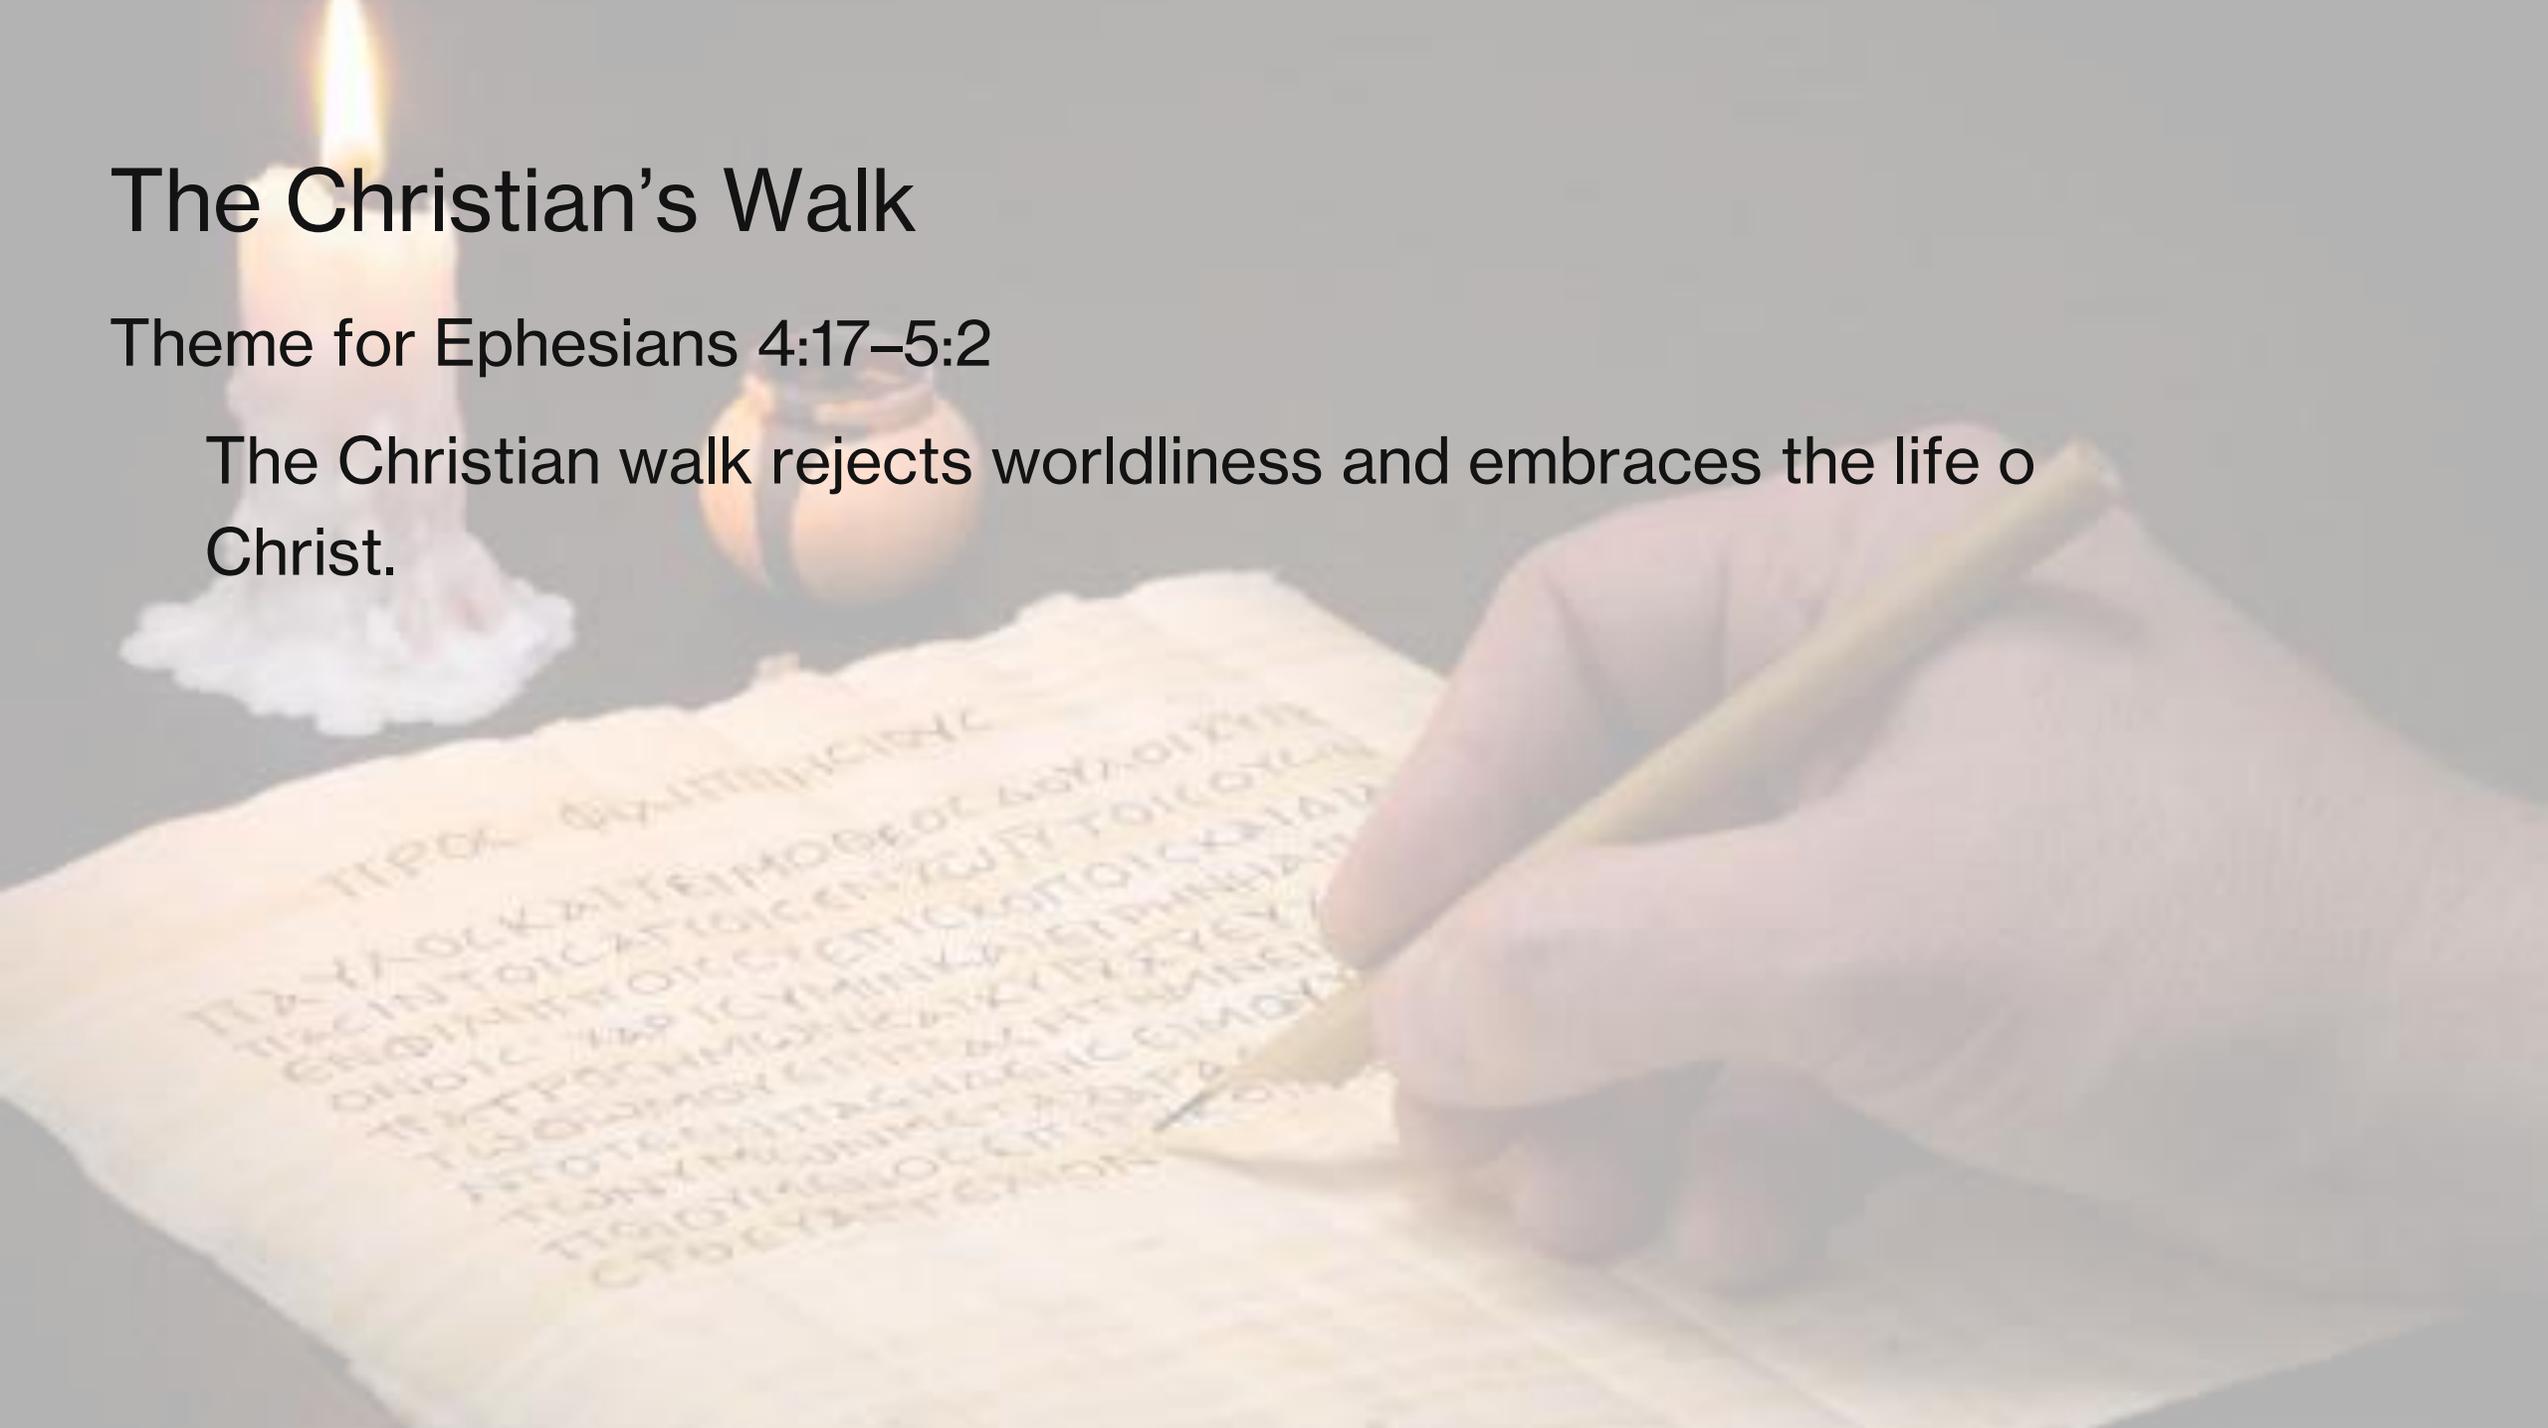

Sojourners Fellowship

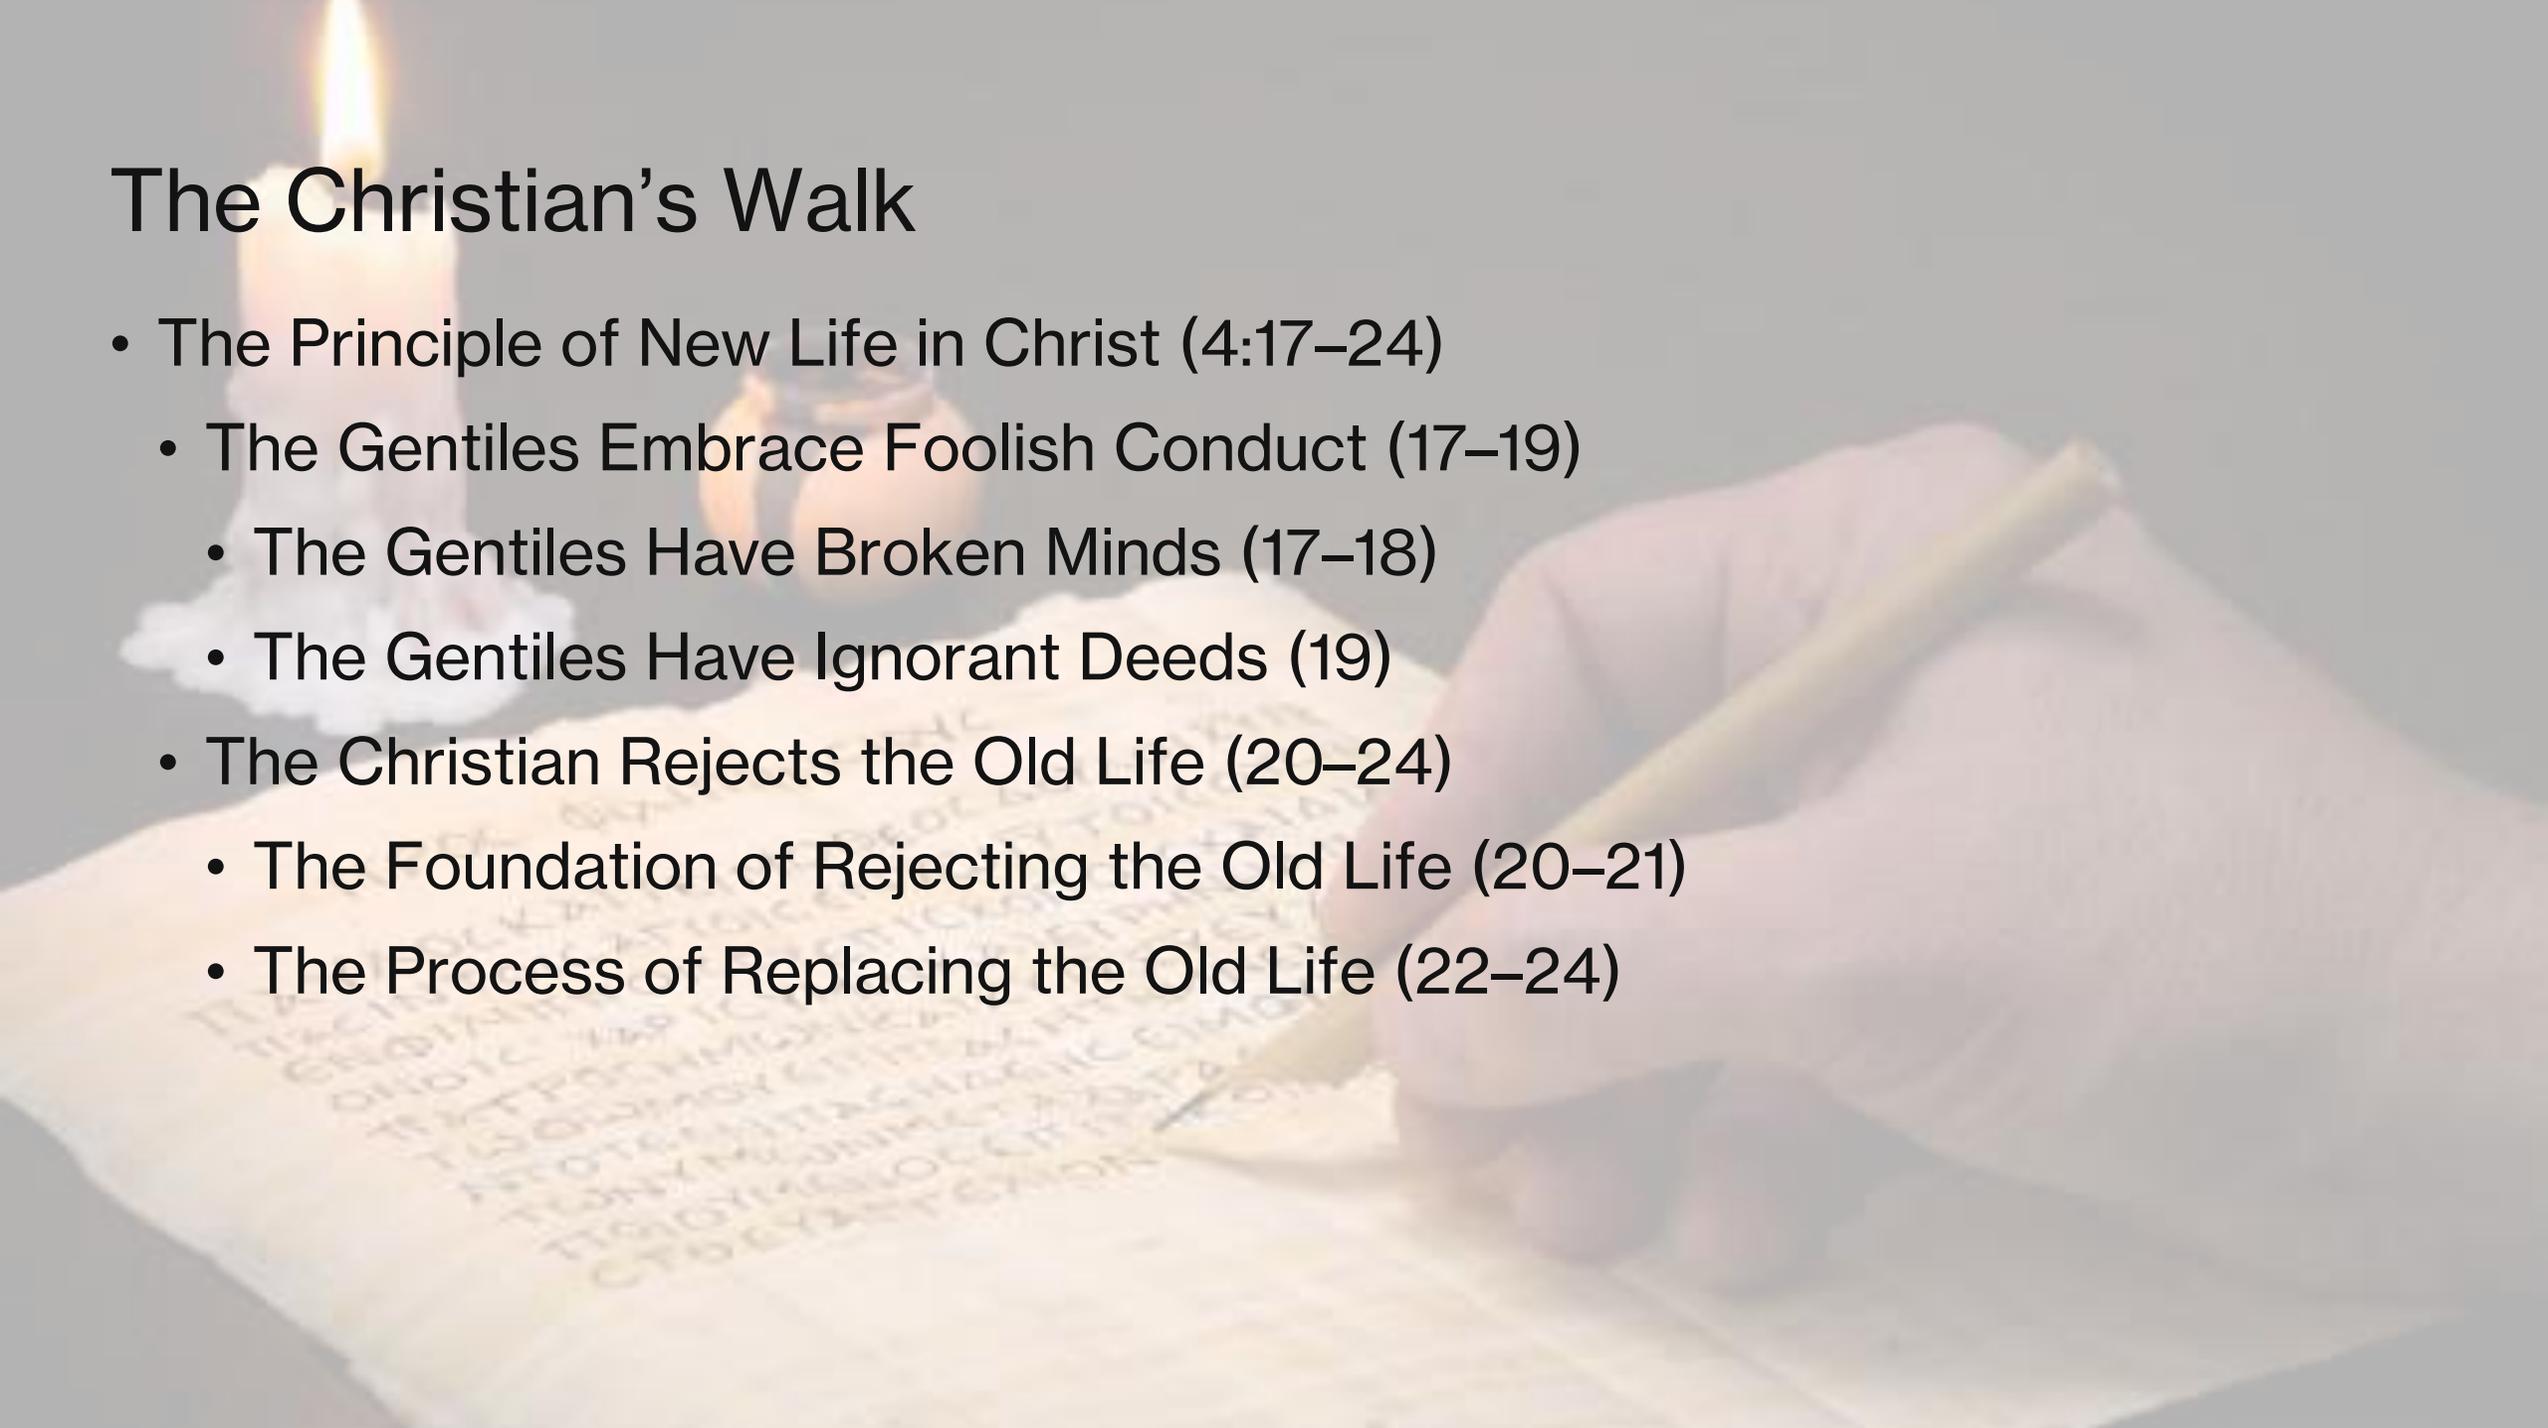

The Christian's Walk

Theme for Ephesians 4:17–5:2

The Christian walk rejects worldliness and embraces the life of Christ.

The Christian's Walk

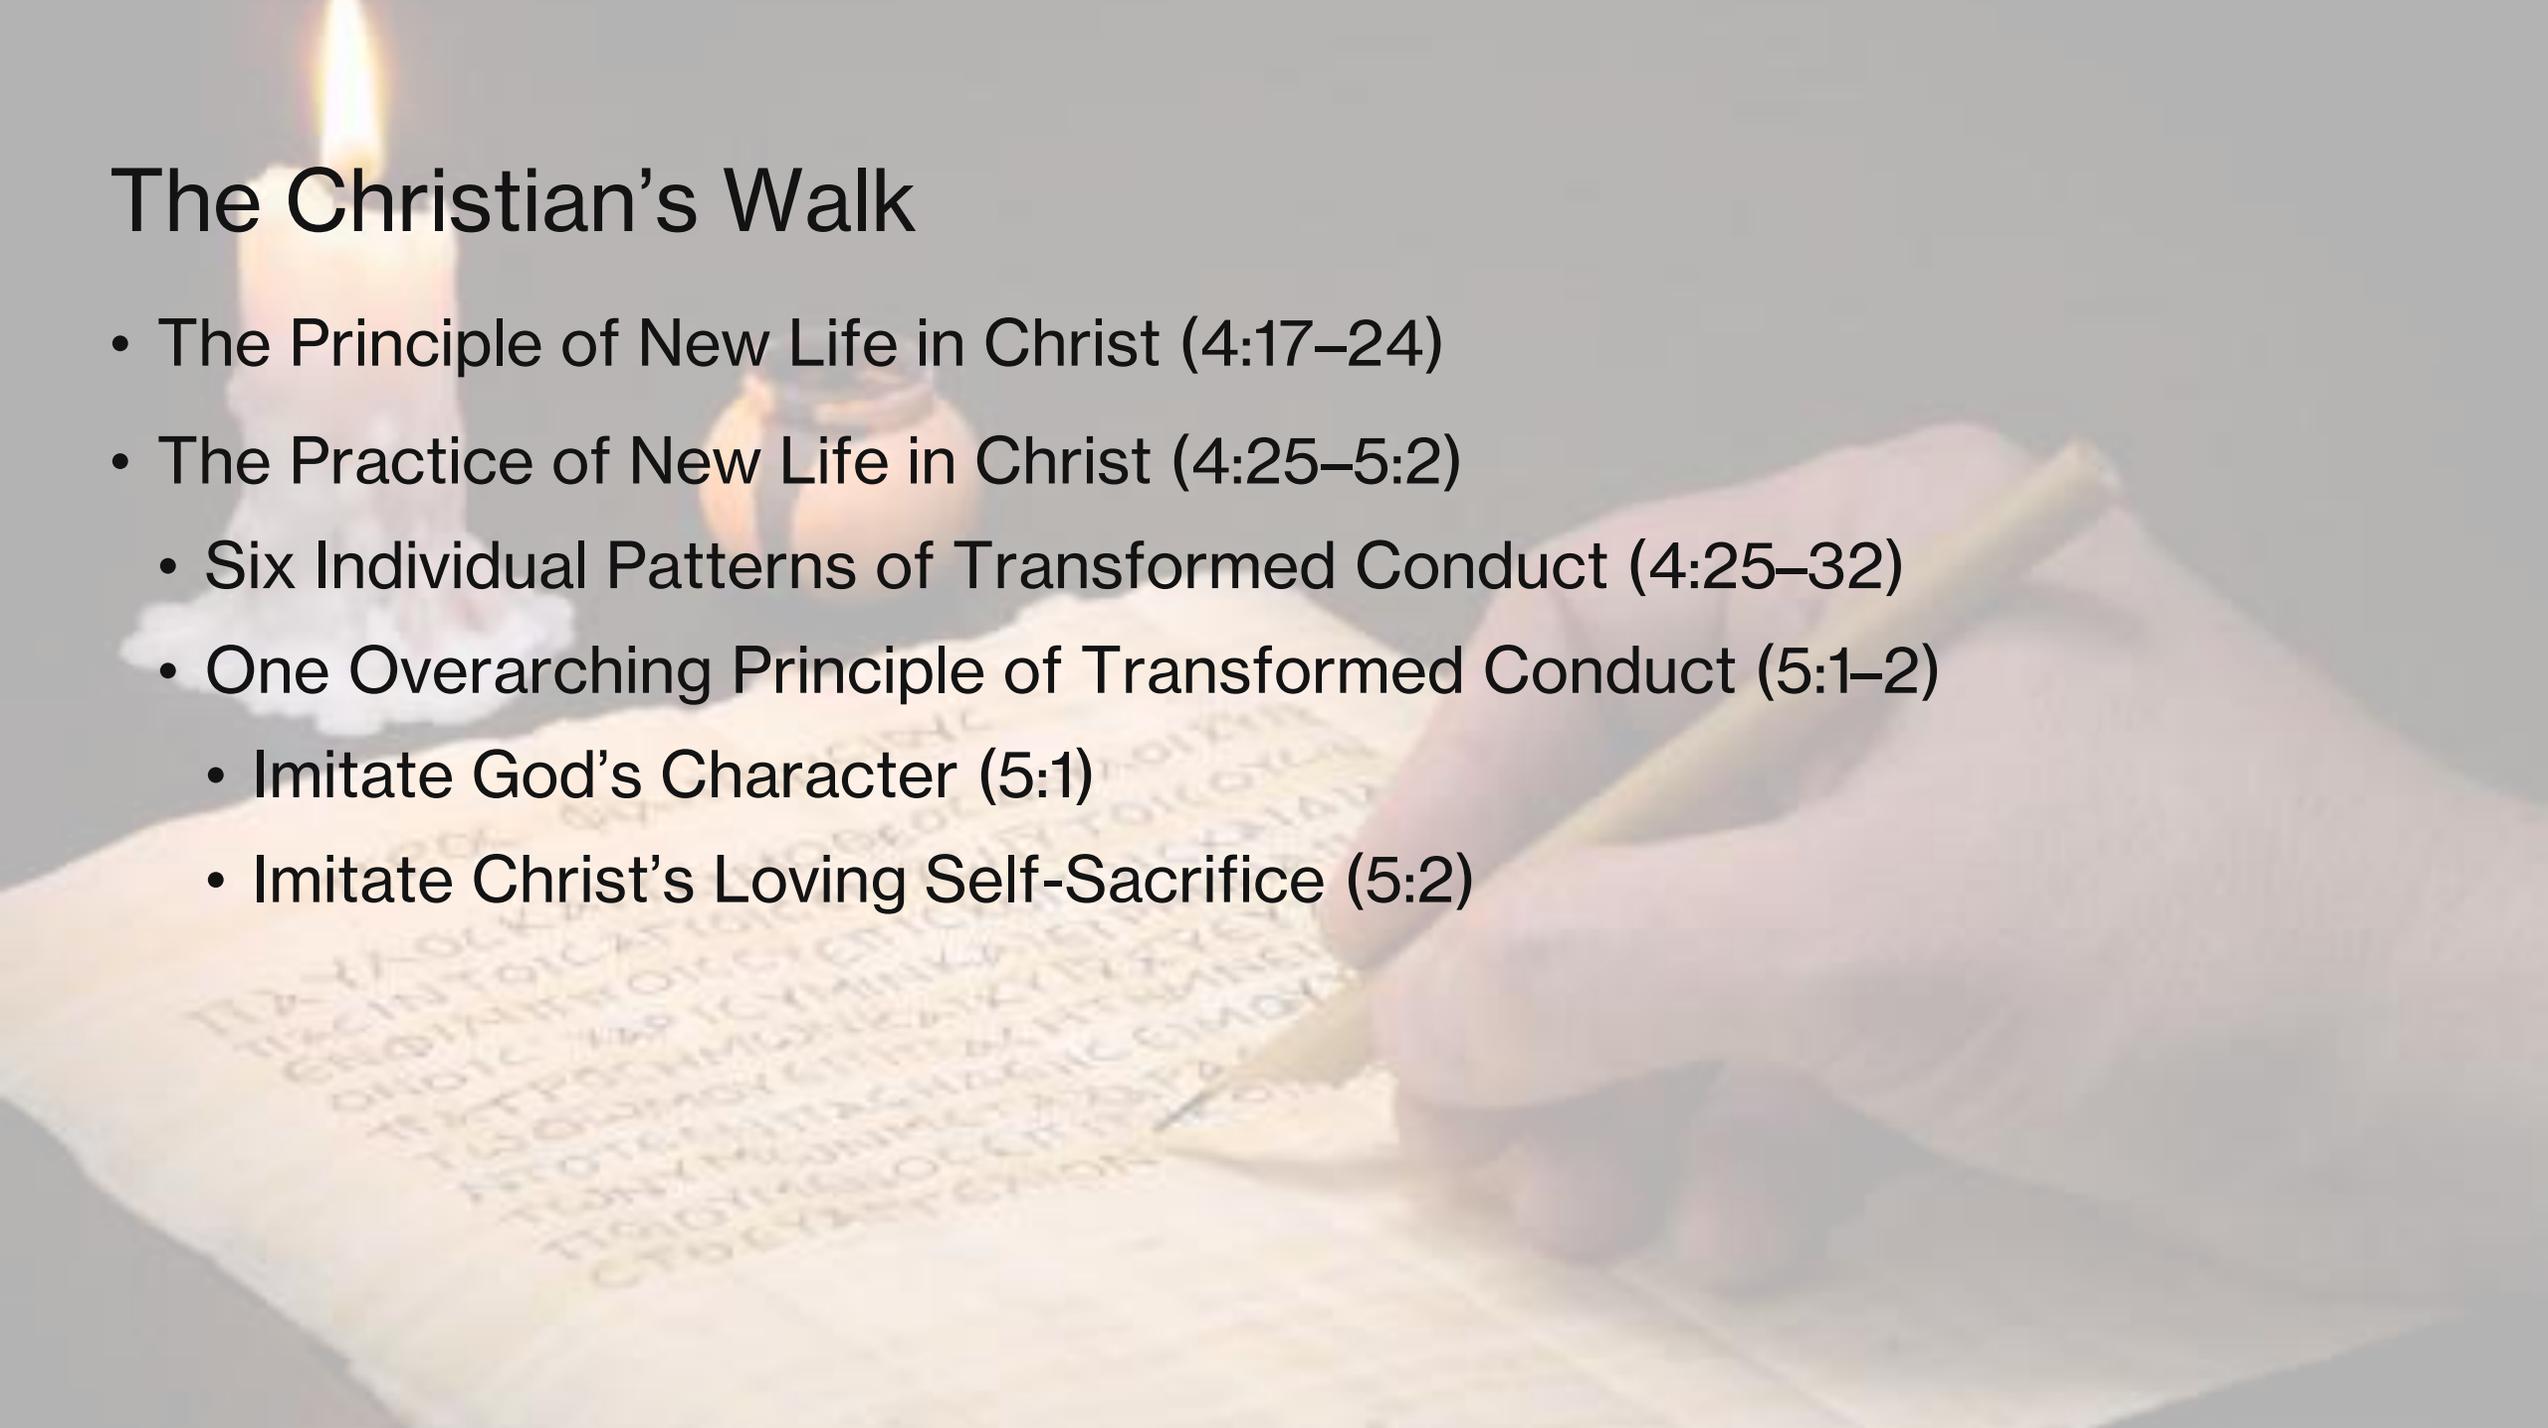

- The Principle of New Life in Christ (4:17–24)
 - The Gentiles Embrace Foolish Conduct (17–19)
 - The Gentiles Have Broken Minds (17–18)
 - The Gentiles Have Ignorant Deeds (19)
 - The Christian Rejects the Old Life (20–24)
 - The Foundation of Rejecting the Old Life (20–21)
 - The Process of Replacing the Old Life (22–24)

The Christian's Walk

A hand holding a quill pen is writing on a scroll. In the background, a lit candle is visible, casting a warm glow. The scene is set against a dark, textured background.

- The Principle of New Life in Christ (4:17–24)
- The Practice of New Life in Christ (4:25–5:2)
 - Six Individual Patterns of Transformed Conduct (4:25–32)
 - Honesty (25)
 - Emotions (26–27)
 - Property (28)
 - Speech (29)
 - God (30; 1 Thess. 4:1)
 - One Another (4:31–5:2)

The Christian's Walk

A hand holding a quill pen is writing on a scroll. In the background, a lit candle is visible, casting a warm glow. The scene is set against a dark, textured background.

- The Principle of New Life in Christ (4:17–24)
- The Practice of New Life in Christ (4:25–5:2)
 - Six Individual Patterns of Transformed Conduct (4:25–32)
 - One Overarching Principle of Transformed Conduct (5:1–2)
 - Imitate God's Character (5:1)
 - Imitate Christ's Loving Self-Sacrifice (5:2)