Speak to the Sons of Israel, and tell them that they shall make for themselves tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they shall put on the tassel of each corner a cord of blue. It shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, so as to do them and not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you played the harlot, so that you may remember to do all My commandments and be holy to your God.

Numbers 15:38-30

The background of the slide is a photograph of a Roman-style building. A long, purple awning with a scalloped edge hangs over a walkway. The building has white walls and several small, square towers or sentries. The sky is blue with some clouds.

The soldiers took Him away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium), and they called together the whole Roman cohort. They dressed Him up in purple, and after twisting a crown of thorns, they put it on Him; and they began to acclaim Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Mark 15:16-18

“Come now, and let us reason together,” says the LORD, though your sins are as scarlet, they will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool.
